

Biography for Jodi Rich:

By God's grace I grew up in a Christian family. I grew up on a farm as the youngest of four children. I attended University of Northwestern in Roseville where I met my husband. I was majoring in marketing. Six months after we were married, Jeff started Northwestern College of Chiropractic. After receiving his DC degree, he went on to do a 3-year residency in radiology. We had the first of our nine children at that point. God called my husband into ministry and Jeff was ordained ten years ago, attended Central to get his MDiv, and we planted a Grace Community Bible Church in Lakeville. This December we had our first wedding, oldest daughter, Abielle. I homeschool my children, I am a tutor for Classical Conversations a homeschool community where I teach an Essentials of the English Language Class for 4-6th grade children. I enjoy playing the piano and reading.
